

What is Intergroup?

Presented by Greater Cincinnati Intergroup of OA

The Structure of OA

The Twelve Concepts of OA Service

1. The ultimate responsibility and authority for OA world services reside in the collective conscience of our whole Fellowship.
2. The OA groups have delegated to World Service Business Conference the active maintenance of our world services; thus, World Service Business Conference is the voice, authority and effective conscience of OA as a whole.
3. The right of decision, based on trust, makes effective leadership possible.
4. The right of participation ensures equality of opportunity for all in the decision-making process.
5. Individuals have the right of appeal and petition in order to ensure that their opinions and personal grievances will be carefully considered.
6. The World Service Business Conference has entrusted the Board of Trustees with the primary responsibility for the administration of Overeaters Anonymous.
7. The Board of Trustees has legal rights and responsibilities accorded to them by OA Bylaws, Subpart A; the rights and responsibilities of the World Service Business Conference are accorded to it by Tradition and by OA Bylaws, Subpart B.

8. The Board of Trustees has delegated to its Executive Committee the responsibility to administer the OA World Service Office.
 9. Able, trusted servants, together with sound and appropriate methods of choosing them, are indispensable for effective functioning at all service levels.
 10. Service responsibility is balanced by carefully defined service authority; therefore, duplication of efforts is avoided.
 11. Trustee administration of the World Service Office should always be assisted by the best standing committees, executives, staffs and consultants.
 12. The spiritual foundation for OA service ensures that:
 - a. No OA committee or service body shall ever become the seat of perilous wealth or power;
 - b. Sufficient operating funds, plus an ample reserve, shall be OA's prudent financial principle;
 - c. No OA member shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority;
 - d. All important decisions shall be reached by discussion, vote and, whenever possible, by substantial unanimity;
 - e. No service action shall ever be personally punitive or an incitement to public controversy; and
 - f. No OA service committee or service board shall ever perform any acts of government, and each shall always remain democratic in thought and action.

How GCI Supports Our Fellowship

- Maintains local meeting list
- Distributes information
- Maintains website and Facebook page
- Handles inquiries from the public
- Organizes and funds events
- Surveys the membership to ask what they need and how we're doing
- Creates media spots and arranges speakers for outside organizations
- Informs professionals in fields of health, counseling, eating disorders about OA
- Sends reps from our area to region assemblies and the world service business conference to speak / vote on our behalf

What is an IG rep?

Each OA meeting is encouraged to elect 1-2 Intergroup reps to represent that group at the GCI meeting.

They have 3 basic functions:

Gather information and relay it back to their group
Vote on Intergroup issues (i.e. whether GCI should purchase a Zoom account so we can host virtual meetings)

Volunteer to assist a committee

- ▶ Do you have continuous program involvement and abstinence behind you?
- ▶ Are you willing and able to give dependable service?
- ▶ Are you convinced that service is its own reward, and are not pursuing praise?
- ▶ Do you have a good familiarity with OA and AA literature?
